TOUNG MEN

Who have injured themesives by a certain practice indulged in when atone—a habit frequently learned from avil companions, or at school, the effect of which are nightly felt, even whoe miseg, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and hody—should captly immeditably.

What is pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be emitted from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the country, the pride of his parents, should be emitted from all prospect and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the constend from all prospect habit. Such persons area, before contemplating reflect, that a sound mind and body are the more necessary requisite to premote countrible happiness. Indeed, or without these, the journey through life before the prospect howiry darkens of any pitgrimage; the prospect howery deviction that the happiness of the mind and the happiness of the mind of the seeds of this pleasure finds he has inhibed the seeds of this the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes bill pixed with our own.

DIREARE OF IMPRIDENCE.

When the misquided and inprudent voltary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illitimed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, detects him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing protenders, who, theeigable of curing, fitch his permanary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despar leave him with ruther health to sigh ever his galling disappointment; or, by the use of that disadly poinces. Marcury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this territhle disease, such as Affection of the Hend. Threat, Nose, Skin, etc., progressing with fright of applications by sending him to that undiscovered country from whose bourse no traveler returns.

ENDORREMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last sighteen years, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the reperfers of the "Sun," and many other papers, notices of which appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the affected.
